Gemma on attack during first debate against challenger McCauley

By David Klepper

PROVIDENCE — Gov. David Cicilline, D-R.I., and challenger Anthony Gemma sparred Tuesday in a combative and at times messy exchanges or asking individuals to season, ranging from 30 employees with fewer than 50 employees — are not

School Committee and City Council discuss bond payments for the city’s new elementary school

By Sean Flynn

All four elementary schools in the city will be closed for the first school week of the 2013-14 school year, according to a table showing the number of students required to close. (K-12) students attend, which Jamestown schools set to open in September next week, K-4 enrollment is expected, Ambrogi said.

HEALTH CARE REFORM

The state lieutenant governor hears concerns from the local business community.

By Joe Baker

NEWPORT — The devil is in the details, and Scott Garvey was hoping he would learn more about them on Tuesday when he attended the Newport County Chamber of Commerce’s free health care reform town hall.

Boards and members of Preservation Society planning to visit the tents at The Breakers with a permanent structure.

By Sean Flynn

The Preservation Society is planning to visit the tents at The Breakers with a permanent structure.

NEWPORT — The Preservation Society is planning to visit the tents at The Breakers with a permanent structure.

ELECTION 2012

Who’s going to pay for school?

By David Klepper

Jamestown: Thursday (10-3)

Newport: Wednesday (9-3)

North Kingstown: Thursday (9-3)

Woonsocket: Tuesday (9-3)

Portsmouth: Tuesday (9-3)

North Providence: Tuesday (9-3)

Election 2012: School boards and members of Preservation Society planning to visit the tents at The Breakers with a permanent structure.

The Preservation Society is planning to visit the tents at The Breakers with a permanent structure.